Subject: RE: Dealerships parking cars with the state right of way

Good morning Ron,

We do not allow vehicles of any type to be placed on state property for sale. Dealerships and/ or private citizens, the answer remains the same. What the dealer or private party does on their property is not our concern as long as the actions do not infringe on state property. As I have explained to more than a few in recent times, they can come right up to, but not over the line between private and state property. If the town has a regulation that states that they need to be a further distance from the line, that is your requirement, not ours.

If you have any further questions and/ or concerns about this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Regards,

Carlos,

Just for clarification, can dealerships park their cars within the state right of way?

If not, is there a permit or approval process available by the state to allow this?

I'm sure that you have to be contacted by business owners about this issue.

I just need clarification from you.

Thank you,

Ron Chalecki
